

Indiana's no call law has kept down the number of obtrusive calls I have received. I LIKE IT. I do not need my bank contacting me about "new programs" that are nothing more than attempts to extract more of my income to their pockets.